

OUR DAILY MAIL

ORANGEBURG.

Mrs. Hattie Trumbull of Sherburne is here on a visit to her father, H. B. Taylor.

Miss Charles Ann True of Dover is visiting her sister, Mrs. D. E. Bullock of this place.

Miss Lucie A. Bullock has returned home from her aunt's Mrs. S. E. Bullock of Millcreek.

It was very cold here Sunday for the time of year; a good fire felt very comfortable.

One day last week George Calvert, wife and two children were very badly shocked by lightning.

We had a large crowd in our town Sunday—preaching at the Christian Church and Quarterly Meeting at the M. E. Church, South, conducted by Elder J. Reeves.

MURPHYSVILLE.

Howard & Co. had a lively day on the 21st receiving tobacco.

A. R. Howard is going to the city this week on the tobacco market.

Some of the farmers are through setting tobacco; others have not commenced.

T. V. Chandler passed through this village on the 23d. Thomas surely means business.

Galbreath & Gault are busy packing their purchase of tobacco for the Cincinnati market.

Hubbard Evans has the foundation of his dwelling built on his property opposite the M. E. Church.

A. R. Howard & Co. have employed Mike Fritts of Ripley to inspect their tobacco before packing. Mr. Fritts is a good handler.

There was preaching at the M. E. Church on the 23d by the Pastor, Rev. Gideon Jolly. Sunday-school every Sunday at 9 o'clock, preaching every other Sunday at 11 o'clock.

SHANNON.

The corn in this locality is coming up well.

Born, to the wife of R. T. Maston, a fine son.

J. T. Reese is receiving his large purchase of tobacco.

There has been some tobacco set in this neighborhood.

Mrs. William Tuel has been very sick, but at this writing is convalescent.

The wet weather of the past few days has been very injurious to farmers.

G. G. Killpatrick, our clever butcher furnishes this place with beef once a week.

Alex. Watson & Son have commenced repairing their barn, which was unroofed by the storm of the 15th inst.

The entertainment given by Mrs. Sue Wright was a success in every respect. Several of the young ladies and gentlemen in the school district took part and made it interesting. We must not forget to mention Mr. Killpatrick, as he is a good actor. There were one hundred and fifty present. Some of the seats gave way and one-half the audience left before it was over.

SPRINGDALE.

The colored troops fought nobly for Wall at fifty cents per head.

Mrs. E. A. Doyle of Maysville is visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. C. Degman, this week.

Miss Clara Degman, who is attending the Normal at Manchester, was home from Saturday until Monday.

Mrs. C. C. Degman, with Master Pelham, Julius and Johnnie and Miss Clara, made a flying trip to Maysville on Sunday.

The election at Orangeburg was a tame affair. The Maysville contingent with the "boodie" did not come in contact with a single Republican hustler.

There were quite a number of Alliance men that went back on their party at the polls. "Why that will be a vote against the Democratic party," was their startled exclamation.

The "six months in the county" clause of the new Constitution was very inconvenient for several of our Democratic friends who were very anxious to "down that G. A. R. man."

Thomas Holt, whose place of residence is somewhat uncertain, enlivened our town on Saturday last by executing a regular war dance while on a "bum." The whoop was ear-piercing if not soul-inspiring.

THE Telegraph on her next trip will have stacks of good music. She will have on board the Hartford City Brass Band of 18 pieces, and Prof. Lewis's orchestra of 7 pieces. The latter aggregation will continue on the boat during the summer season.

ALONZO GRAY, the fourteen-year-old son of George T. Gray a leading farmer of Lyon county, had climbed into a tree to rob a bird's nest, when the limb he was climbing to suddenly broke, hurling him violently to the earth, a distance of over forty feet. He will not rob any more birds' nests this spring.
